

ABS MEMBERS' SERVICES INCLUDE PILOT PROFICIENCY PROGRAMS, SERVICE CLINICS, A REGULAR NEWSLETTER, AND 'FLY-AWAY' MEETINGS HELD AROUND AUSTRALIA

■ ABS Membership instantly puts you in touch with a world of Bonanza and Baron specific knowledge and experience.

Your membership makes you part of an information sharing system so you are no longer left alone to work out any questions you might have regarding your aircraft and the most efficient way to operate it.

The Pilot Proficiency Programs help you to get the best training in your aircraft, while the Service Clinics help you to maintain your aircraft to the highest standards.

And, of course the 'fly-aways' provide a great opportunity to have fun and enjoy the company of fellow Beechcraft enthusiasts while helping keep up with the latest news and technical advice, in a happy social environment.

■ ABS has help for you if you need it.

When you are an ABS Member and need help or information concerning your aircraft, you can count on it being available.

The Australian Bonanza Society is in constant communication with the American Bonanza Society and the two groups have an excellent working relationship with each other.

■ Unique programs bring the best in Bonanza & Baron training and service information

There is simply no training comparable to the ABS Pilot Proficiency Programs, and the unique Service Clinics are valuable inspections that will help you maintain your aircraft to a safe standard in an efficient manner.

■ ABS newsletter opens the door to common interests.

In essence the ABS newsletter provides an open door to Beechcraft experience as well as to the best sources of information. It is also a valuable tool for contact between members.

■ ABS website another valuable resource.

In conjunction with the ABS newsletter the ABS website is another asset available to members where information can be accessed and shared.
